

The fact that some who nearly has a monopoly on the radio market would want to protect that is not surprising. However, as we all know monopoly of the sort are illegal in our country. Thus, the satellite radio industry can and should have the right to offer and services that any one else has just like our free market economy intends.